

Safeguarding tomorrow: GSI appoints Compliance Manager

London, UK – 12 June 2024 – Global Systematic Investors LLP (GSI) has announced the appointment of Greg Brown as Compliance Manager.

This strategic addition underscores GSI's commitment to maintaining robust compliance standards, ensuring operations adhere to the latest regulations and align with industry best practices. We know how essential compliance is for GSI's clients and the investors they guide, as it ensures regulatory adherence, enhances investor confidence, and upholds the highest standards in portfolio management.

Greg Brown brings a wealth of experience in regulatory compliance and risk management, which will be instrumental in supporting GSI's mission to provide transparent and reliable sustainable investment solutions. His expertise will further strengthen the firm's compliance framework and reinforce its dedication to upholding the highest standards in the industry. Greg will report directly to Andrew Cain, Managing Partner of GSI.

"We are delighted to welcome Greg Brown to GSI," said Andrew Cain. "His extensive background in compliance and his dedication to maintaining excellence in regulatory adherence will be invaluable as we continue to grow and navigate the evolving financial landscape."

Greg Brown is a highly experienced compliance professional with a diverse background. He has worked in small firms, such as The Cambridge Strategy, where he worked for over 16 years in different roles including Chief Compliance Officer and MLRO, and a Director in their Hong Kong business. He also has experience with global firms such as Northern Trust Asset Management, where he was most recently a Senior Compliance Consultant in their Dublin office, working with the firm since 2021.

Commenting on his appointment, Greg Brown said: "I'm delighted to be joining GSI, and working closely with the Management Committee, at such an exciting time in the firm's development as it continues to grow and attract more clients. They have put together a really strong proposition and I'm looking forward to joining them in meeting the complex regulatory needs to ensure we safeguard the investments of advisors and their clients."

Outside of work, Greg is deeply involved in the community, actively coaching wheelchair rugby league, and junior cricket, and serving as Trustee and Chair of the Volleyball England Foundation.

His commitment to both professional and community excellence makes him a valuable addition to our team.
